

On Election Day, Indiana voters must provide photo ID

The ID must:

1. Display the voter's photo
2. Display the voter's name, and the name must conform with the voter registration record. Conform does NOT mean identical. Below are examples of names that would conform to "Robert John Crew":
  - Robert John Crew
  - Robert J. Crew
  - Robert Crew
  - R. John Crew
  - Bob John Crew
  - Bob J. Crew
  - Bob Crew
  - John Crew
  - J. Crew
  - R. J. Crew
3. Contain an expiration date and either be current or have expired sometime after the date of the last General Election (November 2, 2004)
  - This also includes Military ID's listing "INDEF" under expiration date.
4. Be issued by the State of Indiana or the U.S. government.

In most cases, an Indiana driver's license, Indiana photo ID card, U.S. passport, or Military ID is sufficient.

If you do not have a valid photo ID, you may obtain an Indiana photo ID card free of charge from any BMV license branch that issues drivers licenses and IDs.

Exemptions do exist for the indigent, those with a religious objection to being photographed, and those living in state-licensed facilities that serve as the precinct's polling place.

You may cast a provisional ballot if you are unable or unwilling to present photo ID on Election Day. If you cast a provisional ballot, you have until noon 10 days after the election to follow up with the County Election Board and either provide the necessary documentation or affirm one of the law's exemptions applies to you.
